Field hockey captures national title

By Stephen Whyno
Senior staff writer

LOUISVILLE, Ky. – At the very instant the clock expired, the field was littered with sticks dropped to the ground as the Terrapin field hockey players embraced each other and their coaches.

The exuberant bench soon became as empty as the hearts of the Duke players as everybody in a white uniform hugged each other to the chorus of cheers from nearby fans.

Jumping up and down, the players huddled around coach Missy Meharg and carried the trophy above their heads as if it weighed no more than a feather.

After the weight the team's seniors carried on their shoulders, caused by year after year of heartbreaking losses, yesterday's 1-0 national championship win and resulting trophy brought relief and -

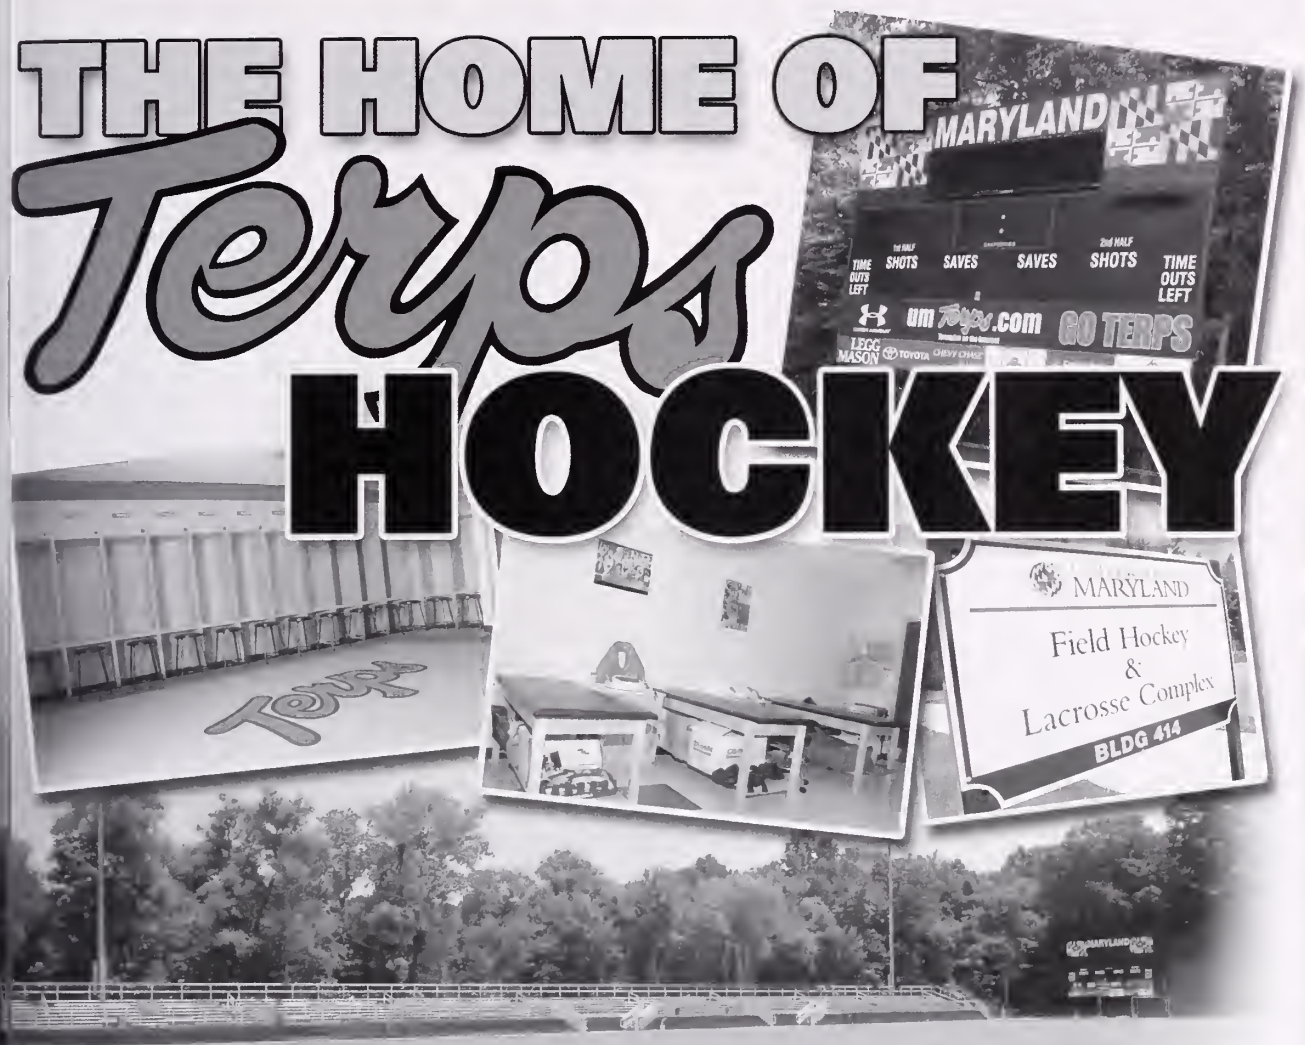
THE HOME OF Terps HOCKEY



The premier, state-of-the-art Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex seats 1,400 spectators and meets the highest field standards of the F.I.H., field hockey's international governing body. Opened in 2003, Phase I of construction on the fan-friendly facility featured a high-performance, water-based nylon Astroturf 12 playing surface and a remote watering system. Phase II and III of the project were completed in October 2005, which included the completion of the full concourse level plaza with permanent restrooms and concession areas, team locker rooms, team meeting room, training room and equipment storage area.

In 2004, the facility was officially designated a Regional USFHA training site and a home facility for the U.S.A. Field Hockey national teams and the USFHA Elite Training Program Maryland Thundersticks team.

SEASON OUTLOOK

DEFENSE COULD PROPEL TERPS TO ANOTHER TITLE RUN

The Maryland field hockey team was ranked No. 1 in the nation at the end of the season and claimed the 2005 NCAA Championship crown. What more could the Terrapins want? A repeat.

The reigning national champs will be looking for a first in the program's history, back-to-back NCAA titles, despite having won four overall.

"Maryland field hockey has won four national titles since 1987, one every six years. We are looking to break that pattern and address the newness and the challenges of repeating as champions," said five-time National Coach of the Year Missy Meharg.

In order to accomplish the rare feat of repeating as champions, each Terrapin will have to be accountable for themselves and the team, no matter what their role.

"Every member of this team has a role in this challenge – on the field, in practice, in meetings, in class. We all have a place we create. This is not just a team goal, but a personal goal, and every player, coach and staff will have a responsibility in order to achieve our united objective."

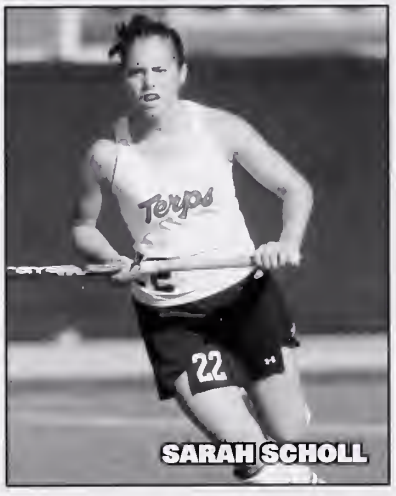
Among those taking on the challenge of repeating as NCAA and ACC Champions are 13 letterwinners, including six returning starters, the reigning national player of the year, two All-Americans and five all-region selections. The incoming class is among the most talented in school history, including two high school All-Americans.

Becoming a cohesive unit and integrating a talented freshman class will be the challenge for the reigning champions this season if they are to accomplish what no other Terrapin squad has done before them. The schedule, which features nine of the 16 NCAA Tournament teams, will also prepare this Maryland team to go all the way.

ATTACK

The Terp attack, which was ranked in the top 15 in the nation took the most number of losses, including the team's top two scorers from last season with two-time All-American Jackie Ciconte and three-time Mid-Atlantic All-Region honoree Tiffany Marsh. Maryland will look to a young front line to make up those numbers.

"The objective is to maintain our full-field attacking hockey style," said Meharg. "The forwards will use their fitness to integrate a lot of the running patterns to ultimately get the ball into scoring position. The attacking unit will have to have dynamic receiving and vision across the field."



While Honda Award winner Paula Infante is anchoring the defense, she also returns as the team's top goal-scorer. She knocked in 13 tallies last year, the second-most on the team.

Senior Emily Trycinski had a breakout season last year, playing in every game, while sophomore Sarah Scholl spent part of her summer playing high-level field hockey and was named to the U.S. Junior National team pool. Redshirt sophomore Kim Zeigler continued to develop her hockey skills during the spring competition.

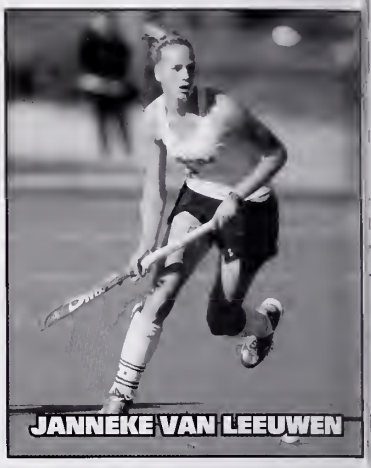
Forwards Alexis Pappas, Nicole Murraco and Ameliet Rischen will be impact players on the forward line. The three come with extensive high-level playing experience. Pappas was named to the U.S. Junior National Team pool after her local club squad won the 2006 National Futures Championship. Murraco was invited to the U.S. Junior National Team selection camp this summer, while Rischen is a member of the Under-18 Holland National Team.

MIDFIELD

"We have tremendous depth in an area where we lost a lot of experience," said Meharg. "We have dynamic players with a variety of skills, all have speed to play well in the transition."

A four-time All-American and a staple in the midfield, Lauren Powley's talent and experience can not be replaced. But her expertise and experience will lend a hand in the Terrapin's talented midfield as she takes to the sidelines in 2006 as a student assistant coach.

The midfield attack is well-balanced, with junior Janneke van Leeuwen, senior Megan Fox and sophomore Danielle Keeley leading the unit. Van Leeuwen has been a starter in the midfield the last two seasons. She earned Freshman of the Year honors in 2004 and last season was an all-region pick. Van Leeuwen has been the model of consistency while also making strides in the off-season.



Fox and Keeley have seen limited action, but continue to develop as hockey players and also have game experience.

Add to the midfield newcomers Bri Davies and Berber Rischen, older sister of Ameliet, also a newcomer this season. Davies had an outstanding high school and summer campaign, earning All-American honors and was also selected to the U.S. Junior National Team pool.

Berber, a transfer from Kent State, was admitted to the Smith School of Business at the University of Maryland and will be pursuing her master's degree while playing out her final year of eligibility. She was the Mid-Atlantic Conference's Co-Player of the Year in 2004 and has been named to the all-region team three times. Her Division I field hockey experience will also be an added element she brings to the young midfield.

DEFENSE

En route to the program's fourth national title, the Terps relied heavily on their defense finishing second in the nation with a 1.01 goal against average. This year will be no different as Maryland's most veteran unit is in the backfield, with four of five starters returning.

Included in that mix is 2005 Honda Award winner and three-time first-team All-American Paula Infante. Infante, who also captured the ACC Defensive Player of the Year Award last season, finished the season with 13 goals, five of which were game-winning goals, and four assists and looks to become the program's first four-time first-team All-American.

Joining Infante on the back line are senior Kristina Edmonds and sophomore Susie Rowe. Edmonds made several defensive saves, but none were more important than the one she made in the first half of the ACC Championship game, which eventually helped Maryland preserve a 3-2 lead and win the program's sixth conference title. Rowe was also a key component in helping the team capturing the ACC crown as she tallied the game-winning goals in both the ACC semifinals and finals. Sophomore Ellen Ott gained valuable experience in 2005 and was a dominant player during the spring 2006 season.

Junior Kendall Beveridge is another defensive veteran who the coaching staff will turn to, while former All-American Emily Beach, a two-year starter on the NCAA Championship squad, will also spend her first year on the sideline mentoring her former teammates as a volunteer assistant coach.

Incoming freshman Alicia Morawski, Kristina Foster, Katie Effland and Kelsie Ward will provide the necessary competition and talent in the backfield.

GOALKEEPERS

The goalkeeping unit also returns the entire core, with fifth-year senior Christina Restivo, All-American Kathryn Masson and redshirt freshman Alicia Grater.

On the rare chance that an opposing team's forward got past the backline last season, Masson was there to shut down the opposition. She led the country in goals-against average with a 0.96 and had seven shutouts on the season, including three in the NCAA Tournament.

Restivo is the team's penalty stroke specialist and stopped a crucial Duke attempt in the regular-season meeting, a game which the Terps eventually won, 2-0. It was one of two instances the Blue Devils had been shut out all season. The other game was in 1-0 loss to the Terps in the NCAA Championship.

Grater, who is coming off a redshirt season, was named to the Maryland USFHA Elite Performance Training Center and helped the Thundersticks win the 2006 USFHA National Championship.

"With Kathryn returning as an All-American, Christina excelling on defensive strokes and Alicia thriving in her game opportunities, as well, the goalkeeping unit could not be more competitive and positively developed," said Meharg.

"EVERY MEMBER OF THIS TEAM HAS A ROLE IN THIS CHALLENGE – ON THE FIELD, IN PRACTICE, IN MEETINGS, IN CLASS. WE ALL HAVE A PLACE WE CREATE. THIS IS NOT JUST A TEAM GOAL, BUT A PERSONAL GOAL, AND EVERY PLAYER, COACH AND STAFF WILL HAVE A RESPONSIBILITY IN ORDER TO ACHIEVE OUR UNITED OBJECTIVE." - MISSY MEHARG

SCHEDULE

The schedule has been set up to challenge and prepare the 2005 champions to achieve its highest expectations.

"There is excellent regional and conference representation on the schedule. The slate includes games against nine of the 16 NCAA Tournament teams and we face competition from teams from seven different conferences."

"Not to be overlooked is the always competitive ACC schedule. The ACC has continued to do an outstanding job of solidifying the conference's dominance on the national scale as four teams continue to remain in the top five, all six have been among the top 20. With the addition of Boston College to the league last year, it only made the ACC stronger."

Maryland opens the season in California, where it will face three of the top teams in the NorPac, including conference champion California. The Terps open with Pacific on Aug. 26, then play Stanford on Aug. 27, before closing out the trip in Berkeley, Calif.

The first of the home-and-home series with Old Dominion is on Sept. 2 in College Park, then the Terps host the annual Terrapin Invitational with the Big Ten's Northwestern and the Atlantic 10's Temple visiting, with the Patriot League's American rounds out the four-team tournament.

Regional foe Delaware makes the trip down Interstate 95 for a mid-week game on Sept. 13, then Maryland begins conference play on Sept. 16 against Boston College and closes out the homestand hosting James Madison on Sept. 17, also a regional opponent.

Back-to-back road trips to Wake Forest on Sept. 23 and Virginia on Sept. 29 will put Maryland half-way through the rigorous conference slate. The Demon Deacons will be looking to avenge a loss in last year's ACC Championship game.

The Terps head over to Big Ten territory to play a neutral-site game in State College, Pa., against conference power Michigan on Oct. 1, then return home for an NCAA final rematch against Duke on Oct. 7.

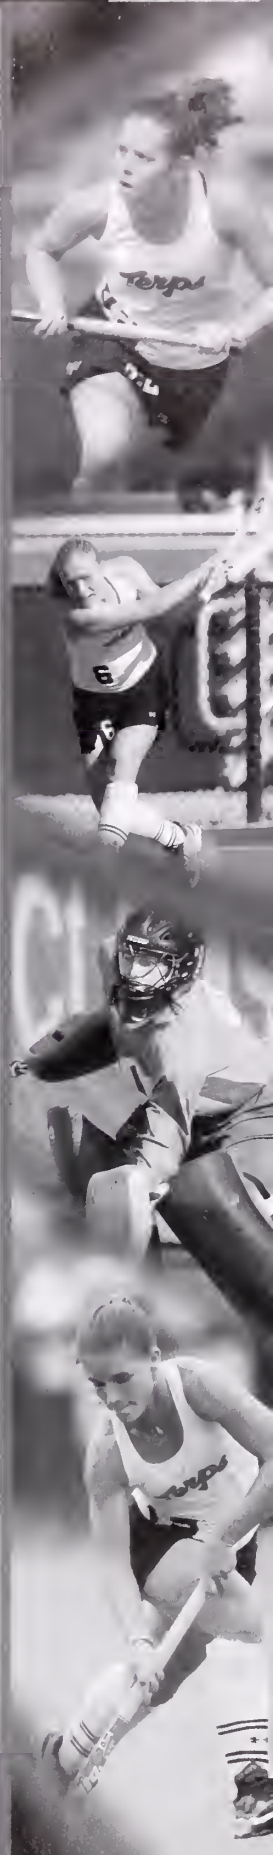
Ivy League champion Princeton hosts the NCAA Champions on Oct. 10, then Maryland travels to Norfolk, Va., to battle the Lady Monarchs on Oct. 14.

The regular season wraps up with a four-game homestretch, beginning with a game against the America East's Albany on Oct. 15, followed by an area-clash with local rival American on Oct. 18. The battle with the Eagles has become one of the must-watch games of the season. Both teams have been among the top five in the nation in the last three meetings.

Maryland hosts North Carolina for the final regular-season ACC game on Oct. 22, then Appalachian State will be the final preparation game on Oct. 27, and will also be the 2006 senior class' final regular season home game, before the Terps head into the postseason.

The prestigious ACC Championship will be hosted in Chapel Hill, N.C., by the Tar Heels. With all five of six teams consistently finding a spot among the national top 20, it will be a battle to take the crown away from the current reigning champion Maryland.

Finally, the journey to the national title game begins at campus sites on Nov. 11-12, with the semifinals on Nov. 17 and championship game on Nov. 19 taking place in Winston-Salem, N.C.



HEAD COACH MISSY MEHARG

19TH SEASON AT MARYLAND • DELAWARE '85
FIVE-TIME NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

Entering her 19th season mentoring one of the top field hockey programs in the nation, five-time National Coach of the Year Missy Meharg and her Maryland Terrapins are coming off one of the most successful seasons in school history, capturing the program's fourth NCAA title and sixth ACC crown, while also posting the fifth 20-win season in school history.

Under Meharg's tutelage, the Terps have had a firm grasp on national top five for at least a decade. Guiding a program with a rich winning tradition, she has guided Maryland to three NCAA titles during her tenure and all six conference championships. The team has also reached the national semifinals 11 times, including six of the last seven years. Despite all the successes, Meharg has not slowed in her efforts to lure top talent to College Park and mentor them to success.

Meharg could be thought of as a coach who has led the Maryland field hockey program to three NCAA titles and 11 NCAA semifinal appearances. She might be referred to as a leader who has won six Atlantic Coast Conference championships, directing the Terrapins to four-straight titles from 1998-2001. She may be recognized as a motivator who has been named the National Field Hockey Coaches Association National Coach of the Year five times, the most of any NCAA field hockey coach. She might also be known as a mentor whose student-athletes have garnered 73 All-America citations on the field and 141 ACC Academic Honor Roll awards outside the lines. Further, she could be seen as an instructor who has developed 39 players who have competed internationally, including four players and who are currently playing at the highest level with the U.S. National team.

Though Meharg's numbers are extraordinary, Maryland's leader, now in her 19th season, is much more. As a serious educator through sport, Meharg recognizes the ability of athletic competition to teach life lessons. The mentor emphasizes the characteristics of sports that can be used as a vehicle to develop a meaningful life.

"Establishing a hard working, compassionate environment which assists to teach women in 'becoming' confident female leaders through their roles as a member of the Maryland field hockey team," says Meharg.

"Coaching with enthusiasm, building a community and establishing a mindset of service models the ultimate success."

Meharg has played an integral role in all four of Maryland's national championships. She was the head coach for the program's last three titles (1993, 1999 and 2005) and was an assistant coach and a U.S. team member during the Terps' first run to the national title (1987).

Accolades have come in the form of five NFHCA Coach of the Year awards (1991, 1993, 1999, 2001, 2005), four ACC Coach of the Year honors (1992, 1995, 1998, 2001) and nine Mid-Atlantic Regional Coach of the Year citations for Meharg. She captured her 300th-career win on the day the Terps defeated Wake Forest for the program's sixth conference title in College Park and is one of six Division I head coaches to win over 300 games.

Last year, the Terps were ranked No. 1 at the end of the season and, for the third consecutive year reached the NCAA semifinals ir its 11th-straight NCAA Tournament apperance. Maryland also won its first ACC title in five years on its state-of-the-art home field, which was also tabbed an official training site by the United States Field Hockey. Paula Infante became just the second player in the program to win the Honda Award, presented to the nation's top player, and is the only one of three players in Maryland Athletics history to gamer the award. Five Terrapins were selected to the NFHCA All-American team, the most since 2000.

During her tenure at Maryland, she has been involved in all facets of collegiate field hockey. She currently serves on the NCAA Mid-Atlantic Regional Advisory Committee. She has coached 39 players who have competed on the international level, including 16 that have represented the United States on the senior national team. In 1996, Meharg served as an assistant coach as former Terp All-American Kate Kauffman-Beach and the U.S. squad competed in the Olympic Games in Atlanta.

DID YOU KNOW?

- Since the NFHCA began recognizing the National Coach of the Year in 1990, Missy Meharg's five awards (1991,1993, 1999, 2001, 2005) are the most for any coach at the college level.
- Leading the Terps to NCA titles in 1993, 1999 and 2005, Missy Meharg is one of just five coaches in Division I history to have won multiple national championships in field hockey, joining Beth Anders of Old Dominion (9), Karen Shelton of North Carolina (4), Jennifer Averill (3) and Diane Wright of Connecticut.

The Terps have been represented in the Olympics, the Pan American Games, the World Cup, the Olympic Qualifying Tournament and a number of other international competitions. In 2003, former Terp All-Americans Kauffman-Beach, Dina Rizzo and Keli Smith participated in the Pan American Games in August in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, as members of the U.S. National Team. Current All-American Paula Infante participated in the games as a member of the Chilean National Team. Rizzo and former Terrapins Sarah Silvetti and Lauren Powley helped the U.S. qualify for the 2006 World Cup.

Meharg is an accomplished and experienced coach on the international stage. She was a member of the U.S. National Team's coaching staff from 1993-1997, which included her appearance in the 1996 Olympics, the 1994 World Cup in Dublin, Ireland, and the 1995 Pan American Games in Argentina. In 1994 and 1995, she served as the head coach for the U.S. Under-21 team. After a hiatus, she returned to the U.S. Field Hockey elite level program in 2004, coaching on both the senior and junior national team selection programs. She was named head coach of the Maryland Elite Performance Center (EPTC) Thundersticks squad in 2005 and guided the team to win the USFHA National Women's Tournament in the summer of 2006.

During her career, Meharg has been extensively involved with teaching in the U.S. Field Hockey Association Coaching Certification Program. She has completed several certification programs which are directed by the Federation of International Hockey (F.I.H.). Meharg enjoys doing color commentary work for television and has worked a variety of sports, including field hockey. She has completed three instructional field hockey coaching video with Championship Productions.

Meharg's collegiate playing career was nearly as successful as her coaching career is now. She was an All-America forward at the University of Delaware, where she also played lacrosse, from 1981-85. Meharg was a Honda Award nominee in field hockey in 1983, the same year she was named MVP of the East Coast Conference after leading her team in goals, assists and points. The Blue Hen hockey team reached the NCAA Championship semifinal round when she was a sophomore in 1982, and Meharg's lacrosse squad won the national championship the following spring.

Meharg enjoyed an impressive seven-year playing career with the U.S. National Team from 1985-91. During that time, she was a member of the 1986 World Cup team and an alternate to the 1987 Pan American and 1988 Olympic teams. She capped her playing career as a member of the 1991 Pan American team and the 1991 U.S. squad that unfortunately missed qualifying for the 1992 Olympics in Barcelona.

Meharg earned a bachelor's degree in health and physical education from Delaware in 1985 and her master's degree in sports psychology from Maryland in 1989. She is the mother of two sons: 15-year old Andre, who attends Archbishop Spalding, and 14-year old Eugene, who is a student at Severna Park Middle School in Severna Park, Md.

WELSH & INFANTE WIN HONDA AWARD

In 2001, defensive back Autumn Welsh became the first athlete under Missy Meharg to be recognized as the national player of the year. Welsh was named the recipient of the prestigious Honda Award, marking the first time in Maryland field hockey history that an athlete attained the honor.

After the Terps' successful 2006 campaign, defensive midfielder Paula Infante became only the second field hockey player in school history to be selected the Honda Award winner.

Infante, Welsh and women's lacrosse standout Jen Adams (2000, 2001) are the only Honda Award recipients in Maryland athletics history.

COACHING STAFF

TJERK VAN HERWAARDEN

ASSISTANT COACH
SECOND SEASON AT MARYLAND
HES '97

Joining the staff in July of 2005, Tjerk van Herwaarden enters his second season as assistant coach of the Terrapin field hockey team. A Netherlands native, van Herwaarden brings extensive coaching experience and knowledge having served as an assistant coach, head coach and technical director at every level during the last 10 years and, in his first season, he helped the Terps win the NCAA and ACC titles.

"It would be obvious to say Tjerk had an incredible first year with the Terps as we captured both the NCAA and ACC titles," said head coach Missy Meharg. "His patience and ability to read tactical adjustments are major strengths. His game knowledge is not only evident in training sessions but also in video work and teaching sessions."

Prior to coming to College Park, van Herwaarden had served as the head coach of the Gooische women's team 2nd Division in the Netherlands, which is considered to have the best field hockey competition in the world, since 2003. His main focus was on development of technical and tactical skills.

From 1999-2003, van Herwaarden was an assistant coach of the Kampong 1st Ladies club team. Kampong reached the semifinals of the National Championship in back-to-back years. While with that team, he mentored some of the country's top field hockey players, who went on to win a silver medal at the Athens Olympics and are currently members of the National team.

Van Herwaarden has devoted much of his time teaching the sport of field hockey. He spent five years as a youth development coach for the KNHB, the Royal Dutch field hockey association, and was a coach conductor for the same organization, where he planned course programs and the educational structure for coursework related to field hockey.

In the summer of 2006, van Herwaarden was selected to work with the U.S. Field Hockey's new men's Regional Training Center and was also head coach on the Maryland Thundersticks women's team, one of six squads that make up the Elite Program Training Center.

Van Herwaarden is the owner and co-founder of Worldcamp USA, which runs Dutch field hockey camps in the U.S., and also serves as technical director. He has been a clinician for six years at the National Field Hockey Festival and is a KNHB Level A and B licensed coach.

Van Herwaarden was also an account manager for SNS Bank in the Netherlands dating back to 1999 until leaving his post to come to Maryland. He also was a guest speaker at the National Field Hockey Coaches Association convention in 2005. He earned a business economics degree at HES, the college for economics in Amsterdam, in 1997.

MARYBETH FREEMAN

ASSISTANT COACH
FOURTH SEASON AT MARYLAND
OLD DOMINION '03

After a brilliant four-year career as the stalwa goalkeeper for the Old Dominion Lady Monarchs Marybeth Freeman joined the Terrapin staff as an assistant coach prior to the sta of the 2003 campaign. Freeman is responsible for mentoring the Maryland keeper and oversees the Terps' academic affairs, NCAA compliance, travel arrangement and recruiting efforts, as well.

"Marybeth is unquestionably a top collegiate and national goalkeeper coach," said head coach Missy Meharg. "She is willing, she is hard working, she is knowledgeable and exceedingly organized. our three keepers are so different as people and athletes, yet she has found the coaching balance for each woman to perform to their potential."

A four-year starter for the Lady Monarchs, Freeman was an integral part of a team that posted an 81-17 (.827) record throughout her collegiate career, capturing four Colonial Athletic Association titles. The two-time All-CAA selection posted an impressive 1.17 career goals against average and a .760 career save percentage.

In her sophomore season in 2000, Freeman was selected to the NCAA All Tournament team, helping Old Dominion to its ninth NCAA Championship crown and, as a senior, the netminder led her squad back to the NCAA semifinals. She garnered All-CAA accolades in her final campaign after registering a 1.18 GAA.

Freeman is one of the few field hockey coaches in the nation to produce instructional videos. "Becoming a Champion Goalkeeper," produced in 200 by Championship Productions, targets goalkeepers and aspiring goalkeeping coaches.

Freeman has also been involved with the U.S. Futures program for both Maryland and New Jersey. She serves as site director and head goalkeeping coach at the University of Maryland, while also being head goalkeeping coach fo an Under-16 site in New Jersey. She also plays a role in coaching the goalkeepers and the defense for the Maryland Thundersticks of the USFHA Elite Performance Training Center.

A native of Holland, Pa., Freeman attended Council Rock High School where she had a school-record 19 shutouts as a senior, while also captaining her team to three Suburban League championship titles.

Freeman showed excellence in the classroom, as well. She was a four-time NFHCA National Academic Squad honoree and was named a CAA Scholar-Athlete. A Dean's List student, she graduated in May of 2003 with a bachelor's degree in health and physical education.

EMILY BEACH

VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH
FIRST SEASON AT MARYLAND
(MARYLAND '06)

After helping Maryland win the 2005 NCAA and ACC Championship titles, former All-American Emily Beach returns to College Park as a volunteer assistant coach with the Terrapins for 2006.

"I'm really excited to join such an experienced coaching staff and learn the game from a whole new perspective," said Beach. "We have a great team to work with this season and I look forward to going after the ACC and NCAA titles, again."

In her two years with the Terps in 2004 and 2005, Beach was a starter in every game in the backfield. Both seasons, the defense was ranked in the top 15 in the nation in goals against average, including boasting the second-best average in the country in 2005 (1.01). In 2004, she earned second team Mid-Atlantic All-Region honors before being named first team All-American as a senior in 2005. In her final campaign, she was selected the team's captain and also went on to earn All-ACC honors and NCAA All-Tournament nods.

A native of Bethesda, Md., Beach began her collegiate playing career at the University of Virginia in 2001 and 2002 before transferring to Maryland. In high school, she led Bethesda-Chevy Chase High School to four-straight state titles and was named Washington Post and Montgomery Journal Player of the Year.

STUDENT ASSISTANT COACH
FIRST SEASON AT MARYLAND

One of the most decorated players in school history, four-time National Field Hockey Coaches Association All-American Lauren Powley will join the Terps as a student assistant coach in 2006 while she completes her undergraduate degree. A member of the U.S. National Team, she helped Maryland capture the NCAA and ACC Championship crowns last fall.

Powley is one of only three players in school history to ever earn All-American honors four times. Starting in every game she played in since arriving on campus in 2002, she was a third-team All-American as a freshman, then garnered first team nods in her final three seasons. While with the Terps, she helped to lead the team to three national semifinal appearances and two 20-win seasons. She earned All-ACC recognition three times and was named to the NCAA and ACC All-Tournament teams in 2005. Powley also dished out 31 career assists, ranking 10th in the Terrapin record books.

Powley has extensive playing experience with the U.S. National team program, since being selected to the Under-18 team in 2000. She was named to the Senior National team prior to the start of her senior campaign in the summer of 2005. Last fall, she helped the United States post its best finish in the Junior World Cup, placing seventh overall. Powley then helped the Senior team place fourth in the World Cup Qualifying Tournament in Rome, Italy, in the Spring, earning a berth in the 2006 World Cup in September.

Hailing from Mountaintop, Pa., Powley was a two-time NFHCA high school All-American. A three-time all-state selection, she led Wyoming Seminary to the Pennsylvania AA State championship as a senior.

NINTH SEASON AT MARYLAND
ST. FRANCIS

Dr. Jerry Lynch is in his ninth season as the team consultant, assisting in the psychological and mental development of the Maryland field hockey program. The prominent sports psychologist has over 30 years of experience and has worked with clients in the PGA, NFL and NBA, as well as, numerous collegiate teams. He has also served as an advisor for several international organizations, from the Swiss skydiving team to the Filipino Olympic Committee.

"Athletes need leaders who are clear and honest, while staying focused on the athlete after Maryland," said Missy Meharg. "Jerry helps the staff stay in the yearly hunt for ACC and NCAA titles, while cultivating championship lives."

Lynch has authored eight books and has published over 75 articles. Lynch is also a renowned speaker and motivator on the national and international level, recently acting as the keynote speaker at the Auckland World Wide Institute. He also delivered the keynote address at the National Field Hockey Coaches Association Conference in Philadelphia in 2002.

Lynch runs the Tap Sports psychology firm based in Santa Cruz, Calif. His expertise aided in the Terps' quest of the 1999 NCAA and ACC title runs. He has also worked closely with the Maryland women's lacrosse program which captured an unprecedented seven-consecutive national 1995-2001. Maryland women's basketball and volleyball teams have also used Lynch as a consultant.

After earning his bachelor's degree in English from St. Francis College, Lynch earned his master's degree and Ph.D. in psychology from Penn State University. In addition, he has earned a Ph.D. in comparative religions from the American College of Theology.

2005 REVIEW NOTEBOOK

TERPS CROWNED 2005 NCAA CHAMPIONS

Maryland captured the 2005 NCAA Championship crown with a 1-0 victory over ACC-rival Duke in Louisville, Ky., the fourth title in program history and the first in six years. The Terps seemed to be destined to claim the title as all four championships had been won in six-year increments.

It was the third title for Maryland under 18-year head coach Missy Meharg, guiding the team in 1993 and 1999, as well. Meharg was also a member of the coaching staff when the Terps won their first-ever crown in 1987.

Maryland's road to Louisville included shutouts over three teams in four games. The Terps swept No. 19 Richmond (4-0) and No. 6 American (3-0) in College Park advancing to the national semifinals for the third-consecutive year. Maryland faced No. 4 Old Dominion for the third time, winning 3-2, before taking on the Blue Devils and shutting down one of the top offenses in the nation.

MARYLAND TOPS IN BEST CONFERENCE IN THE NATION

Playing in the toughest conference in the nation, the Terps won the 2005 ACC Championship crown with a 3-2 victory over Wake Forest. It is the sixth conference title in school history, the first since 2001, all coming under head coach Missy Meharg.

The ACC championship returned to College Park for the first time since 2000 and was played in the recently completed Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex. Because of the addition of Boston College to the league, the tournament featured a new format where the top two teams in the standings earned byes in the first round. The Terps, who went 4-1 during the regular-season conference slate, was seeded second.

The ACC had become even stronger with BC joining the league. Four of the six squads were ranked in the top five, while five were ranked in the top 20 all year. The Terps were not ranked lower than third in the country all season and finished the year ranked No. 1.

INFANTE NAMED HONDA WINNER

Three-time All-American Paula Infante was named field hockey's Honda Award winner, presented to the nation's top field hockey player. She becomes only the second player in program history and the third in Maryland athletics history to earn the award. Infante was a finalist for the award the last two years.

The first field hockey player to earn the prestigious Honda Award was Autumn Welsh in 2002. Women's lacrosse standout Jen Adams is the only other athlete at Maryland to garner the award.

FIVE PLAYERS RECOGNIZED AS ALL-AMERICANS

Five Terrapins were named NFHCA All-Americans at the conclusion of the 2005 campaign, the most since 2000. It is also the 15th-straight year that at least three Terps were selected All-Americans.

First team honorees Lauren Powley and Paula Infante were selected for the third time. Powley was only the fourth player in school history to garner All-America status four times. Infante and Powley garnered first-team nods for the third time, while Emily Beach was selected All-American for the first time in her career. Jackie Ciconte, who was also selected the Delaware Athlete of the Year, was voted to the second team for the second time in her career, while Kathryn Masson was a third-team pick for the first national honor of her career.

MEHARG MAKES HISTORY AS NATIONAL COACH OF THE YEAR

For the fifth time in her career, head coach Missy Meharg was voted the National Field Hockey Coaches Association National Coach of the Year becoming the first coach in NCAA history to garner the honor five times.

Meharg led the Terps to the program's fourth NCAA title and sixth ACC crown. Maryland also finished the year ranked No. 1 in the country. Five Terrapins earned All-American status, while the defense finished the year ranked No. 2 in the nation with the offense ranking in the top 15. With the Terps' victory in the championship game of the ACC Tournament, Meharg also captured her 300th-carerer victory.

DEFENSE WINS CHAMPIONSHIPS

As the saying goes, "Defense Wins Championships," the Terps' backfield ended th season ranked second in the nation, boasting a miniscule 1.01 goals against average The Terps posted nine shutouts on the year, including three in four NCAA Tournamer games. Maryland goalkeeper and third team All-American Kathryn Masson was th top goalie in the nation, posting the best goals against average at 0.92, also a caree best.

TERPS VISIT WHITE HOUSE

After winning the NCAA Championship crown, the Maryland field hockey team wa one of three Terrapins squads invited to celebrate at the White House. The teams invite met President George W. Bush and posed with the president for a team photo.

The Terrapins were the first-ever field hockey squad to earn an invitation to the Whit House in 1987.

INFANTE SELECTED DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Paula Infante was named the ACC's Defensive Player of the Year, becoming the first Terrapin to earn the honor (the defensive player of the year acknowledgment wa created in 2004). She is the sixth player in school history to garner a Player if the Yea accolade.

Infante was also named to the All-ACC team for the third time in her career Teammates Lauren Powley, also a three-time recipient, and Emily Beach were selected all-conference, as well.

ROWE NAMED ACC TOURNAMENT MVP

After tallying both game-winning goals in the ACC Tournament, Maryland freshmar Susie Rowe was tabbed the tournament's Most Valuable Player. She becomes the third freshman in league history to earn the honor and the first since 2001.

TAGLIENTE NAMED TO NCAA ANNIVERSARY TEAM

One of Maryland's three four-time All-Americans, former Terrapin Carla Tagliente was named to the NCAA's 25th Anniversary Field Hockey team. Tagliente helped the Terps capture their third NCAA title in 1999 and was named to the NCAA All-Tournament team that same year. A Marathon, N.Y., native, Tagliente is Maryland's all-time leading scorer. amassing 187 points over her career from 1997-2000. She also scored a school-record 73 goals. Tagliente was a graduate of Marathon High School, the same high school as 2005 NCAA All-Tournament team honoree Tiffany Marsh.

2005 SENIOR CLASS AMONG MOST SUCCESSFUL IN SCHOOL HISTORY

The 2005 senior class is among the most successful in the history of the program. In four seasons, this class reached the NCAA Tournament semifinals three times, winning the NCAA crown in their final season. Posting a career record of 77-17, including two 20-win seasons, they reached the finals of the ACC Tournament three times, winning the title last fall. The class also produces seven All-American citations, nine all-region nods and nine all-academic national and conference honors.

NEW ATTENDANCE RECORDS SET

With the completion of the state-of-the-art Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex, the fan-friendly facility has produced record crowds. In the first season of the new field, over 1,000 Terp fans came out to support the team when it hosted Wake Forest on Sept. 28, 2003. Last year, two more 1,000-plus attendance marks were reached. In the Sept. 24 loss to Wake Forest where the game was decided in penalty strokes, a record 1,243 spectators were in attendance, shattering the previous mark of 1,013. Over 1,300 fans arrived to support the Terps in the ACC Championship game vs. Wake Forest, also setting a conference field hockey attendance mark.

GAME 1 · AUG. 27

NORTHWESTERN 2

EVANSTON, Ill. – Maryland opened the season with a 5-2 win at Northwestern as Paula Infante tallied the game-winning goal in the second half to lead the TErps to victory.

Northwestern (0-1) took a 1-0 lead four minutes into the first half on a penalty corner. But the Terps (1-0) battled to even the score as senior All-American Lauren Powley knocked in a rebound off a penalty corner. Before the end of the first half, senior Tiffany Marsh gave the Terps their first lead of the game with less than a minute to play in the period, 2-1.

The Wildcats knotted the game, 2-2, on a Meghan Small tally in the 38th minutes. A penalty stroke in the 61st minute, however, shifted the momentum and the Terps scored three goals in four minutes to put the game away.

An All-American last season, Infante converted the penalty stroke. Freshman Sarah Scholl finished off a shot on a pass from senior Meredith Long in the 64th minutes and Powley connected with fellow senior Jackie Ciconte on a penalty corner to score the game's final goal.

Maryland peppered Northwestern's goalie Sherri Anne Nyberg with 25 shots, but she made 14 saves to keep the Wildcats within reach. The Terps also dominated on the penalty corners, earning 15, while Northwestern had just one.

MARYLAND 2
OHIO STATE 1

COLUMBUS, Ohio – After trailing for most of the game, Maryland's Jackie Ciconte converted a penalty corner with no time remaining in the game, lifting the Terrapins to a 2-1 victory over Ohio State.

The first half was scoreless until the Buckeyes (0-1) finally broke through to take a 1-0 lead. OSU was awarded a penalty corner and Curlyne Wynn knocked in the ball for the score at the end of the period.

Maryland put pressure on the Ohio State defense, which was playing its opening game of the season, outshooting OSU, 8-2 in the second half. In the 62nd minute, a well-executed penalty corner tied the score, with Ciconte punching through for the goal. Senior Emily Beach and sophomore Janneke van Leeuwen were credited with assists.

The teams battled down to the final minute when Maryland was awarded its fifth and final penalty corner of the game. With no time left on the clock, freshman Susie Rowe took the shot off the corner and Ciconte deflected in the rebound for her second goal in less than nine minutes to give the Terps the win.

Buckeyes were outshot by the Terps, 11-3, for the game.

GAME 3 · AUG. 30

OHIO 1
MARYLAND 3

COLUMBUS, Ohio – Maryland scored a pair of second-half goals to break a 1-1 tie and defeated Ohio University, 3-1 in Columbus, Ohio.

The Terps start the season at 3-0 for the sixth year in a row, after defeating a pair of Big Ten foes in Northwestern and Ohio State to open the season.

Under overcast skies, Maryland jumped out to an early lead at the 31:01 mark when three-time All-American Lauren Powley connected off an Emily Beach pass on one of the Terps' nine penalty corners of the afternoon.

The game remained 1-0 at the intermission and stayed that way until the Bobcats' (1-2) Lindsay Rothenberger scored her first goal of the season on a two-on-one breakaway at the 47:32 mark, tying the score, 1-1.

Just over five minutes later, the Terrapins took the lead for good. On a close-range shot off a pass from senior Meredith Long, Jackie Ciconte connected on the left side of the cage to return the lead to Maryland.

Less than six minutes later, the Maryland lead grew to two after senior Tiffany Marsh found the back of the net in the 59th minute.

Maryland limited Ohio to just two shots, both in the second half, while attempting 11. The Terrapins also won the battle of penalty corners, 9-0.

MICHIGAN 0
MARYLAND 4

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Maryland picked up its firs shutout victory of the season in a dominating 4-0 wir over Michigan, its third win over a Big Ten team. Three of the Terps' four tallies come off penalty corners, with junior All-American Paula Infante pacing the attack with a pair of goals.

Offensively, the Terps controlled the ball for most o the game, attempting 25 shots overall while drawing 12 penalty corners. The few opportunities Michigan had on attack, the Maryland defense was able to shut down the threat. The Wolverines had just five shot attempts and Terrapin sophomore goalkeeper Kathryn Massor swatted away a season-high three of those.

The Terps broke open a scoreless game in the 14th minute as senior captain Emily Beach connected on a penalty corner for her first goal of the season. It would eventually become the game winner.

Of the 12 corners Maryland had in the game, seven came in the first half. Infante took advantage of the penalty corner opportunities, notching back-to-back goals within a six-minute span, giving Maryland a comfortable 3-0 lead.

Junior Emily Trycinski capped the scoring for the evening, scoring Maryland's fourth goal at 53:20.

Senior Tiffany Marsh and 2004 ACC Rookie of the Year sophomore Janneke van Leeuwen both had career nights, dishing out three assists each on the evening.

Michigan goalkeeper Beth Riley, who helped the Wolverines tie for the Big Ten regular-season title and reach the second round of the NCAA Tournament last season, made nine saves despite facing 25 Terrapin shots.

OLD DOMINION 1

NORFOLK, Va. - Junior All-American Paula Infante scored with just 22 seconds remaining in overtime to give Maryland a 2-1 victory over Old Dominion at Foreman Field, only the fourth time in school history the Terps have won on the Lady Monarchs' turf.

The Terps (5-0) struck first in the game as Lauren Powley was used on the option on a penalty corner and senior Tiffany Marsh tipped in the shot at the 25th minute.

For the next 44 minutes, neither team was able to find the back of the cage setting up a dramatic finish in regulation.

Following an injury timeout with only seconds remaining, the Lady Monarchs (2-2) controlled the ball into the circle and made their way to sophomore Sami McLenegan, who fired on the Terp net from inside the left side of the circle. The ball sailed into the back of the Maryland cage to set up the seven-on-seven overtime.

In overtime, the Lady Monarchs were awarded three penalty corners but could not convert. Senior Janelle Engle fired off two shots off the corners directly on net, but the Terps' Christina Restivo came up with saves both times. Infante intercepted the ball midway through their own territory, broke away down field in the closing seconds getting past ODU netminder Mary Cate Gordon and scored the game-winner with 22 seconds left in the first overtime session.

Maryland outshot the Lady Monarchs 12-8, but it was Old Dominion who held the advantage in the penalty corner column taking nine, while the Terps attempted four.

CALIFORNIA 2
MARYLAND 4

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – All-American Paula Infante scored back-to-back goals to lift Maryland to a 4-2 come-from-behind win over California on the first day of the Terrapin Invitational.

Coming into the game, Maryland owned a 16-0 record at the Terrapin Invitational record while also riding a five-game win streak after a thrilling 2-1 overtime victory at Old Dominion last weekend.

Early on, it seemed as if both of Maryland's streaks would not be threatened when senior Jackie Ciconte deflected senior Tiffany Marsh's pass after a penalty corner into the far-left side of the cage just 4:01 into the game. However, the Bears (3-4) responded.

Cal's Valentina Godfrid, who attempted all six of the team's shots, evened the score with a shot from the right side almost four minutes later. In the 29th minute, she put California in front, 2-1, with a back-handed shot from the top of the circle.

Trailing at the break for only the second time this season, Maryland was awarded a penalty corner and senior captain Emily Beach knocked in her second goal of the season, evening the score again, 2-2, at 43:30. Marsh and sophomore Janneke van Leeuwen both had assists.

A minute later, Infante intercepted a ball on the Terps' defensive end, ran down field, past two defenders into the circle and scored, giving the Terps the lead for the first time, 3-2.

Maryland padded its lead, when a penalty shot was called against the Bears at 57:31 and Infante converted on the opportunity to seal the victory.

The Bears would not go away and tried to narrow the lead, earning three-consecutive penalty corners. But Maryland goalkeeper Christina Restivo made saves on each shot attempt to keep the Bears in check.

TERRAPIN INVITATIONAL
STANFORD. 0
MARYLAND 6

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Senior Tiffany Marsh had her first-career hat trick, leading Maryland to a 6-0 rout of Stanford on the second day of the Terrapin Invitational on Sunday afternoon. The Terps improved their all-time record at the invitational to 18-0 and are 7-0 on the season.

Freshman Sarah Scholl opened up the scoring early on, deflecting senior Meredith Long's pass into the net less than three minutes into the game. Scholl is now 2-for-2 in shots on the season.

The Terps did not make it easy for Stanford (1-7), allowing the Cardinal one shot in the game, while Maryland attempted 24.

Maryland was firing on all cylinders, despite a solid performance from Stanford goalkeepers Madison Bell and Sarah Scheller who combined for 10 saves.

Marsh scored her first goal of the afternoon at 14:57. After junior All-American Paula Infante converted on one of the Terps' eight penalty corners, Marsh knocked in back-to-back goals, including a diving tally in the 30th minute, to put the game out of reach, 5-0.

Marsh then picked up her second assist of the afternoon, dishing the ball to senior Jackie Ciconte in the 65th minute to cap the scoring.

Marsh's eight points on the afternoon are also a career high.

MARYLAND 3
BOSTON COLLEGE. 0

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. – Maryland spoiled Boston College's welcome into the Atlantic Coast Conference. In the Eagles' first-ever ACC home game in any sport, the No. 2 Terps defeated No. 16 BC, 3-0.

After almost 14 minutes of no scoring, Maryland freshman Susie Rowe scored on a penalty corner goal which would eventually become the game winner. Senior Tiffany Marsh and sophomore Janneke van Leeuwen each picked up their team-leading eighth assist. It was Rowe's first goal of the season.

The Eagles could not penetrate Maryland's defense which did not allow BC a shot until three-quarters into the game.

The Terps held on to a 1-0 lead until 9:02 remaining when senior captain Emily Beach sent a pass into the circle towards the cage and senior Jackie Ciconte dove to deflect the pass into the back of the net.

With just over three minutes left in the game, Marsh scored a wrap-around goal to cap off the scoring, 3-0.

The Terps, who improved to 8-0 on the season, attempted eight shots in each half while the Eagles, who fell to 4-2, had just two attempts. Maryland also had the edge on penalty corners, 9-2.

Maryland's Christina Restivo posted her first shutout of the season, the Terps' third overall. BC's Jillian Savoy had eight saves.

GAME 9 • SEPT. 18
MARYLAND 1
HARVARD. 0

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. – Second-ranked Maryland posted its third-straight shutout, defeating Harvard, 1-0. Senior Jackie Ciconte scored the game's only goal.

The Terrapin defense has allowed just four shots to its opponents in the last three games, dating back to its 6-0 win over Stanford on Sept. 11. The Crimson, who had not given up a goal on the season entering the game, was limited to just one shot and had no penalty corners.

Maryland's goal came with 11 minutes into the contest. Senior Meredith Long sprinted down the right sideline on the counterattack. She passed the ball ahead to a sprinting Sarah Scholl, and Scholl passed it across the net to an oncoming Ciconte, who dove forward for the deflection into the open cage.

The Terps remain undefeated, winning their ninth game in a row, despite being held to its lowest scoring output of the season. Harvard fell to 4-1 on the year.

MARYLAND 3

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Senior Tiffany Marsh led second-ranked Maryland to its 10th-consecutive win of the season, scoring two goals in the Terps' 3-1 win over Pennsylvania. It is the third time in school history Maryland starts the season at 10-0.

Maryland got on the board quickly, just 1:29 into the game, and took a 1-0 lead. Marsh quickly made a pass into the circle from the restart and found senior Jackie Ciconte who stuck her stick out and deflected the ball into the net.

Marsh then found herself wide open on the right side and wound up for the shot. The ball hit off the goalkeeper and went into the net, putting the Terps in front, 2-0, at 20:44.

Penn (3-4), however, broke through a solid Maryland defense which had shutout its previous three opponents. On the Quakers' only shot attempt of the evening, Lea Salese knocked in a loose ball in front of the net to break up the shutout and come within 2-1 in the second half.

But Maryland tacked on another goal and pushed its lead back up as Marsh added her ninth of the season on a pass from freshman Susie Rowe.

The Terps peppered the Penn goalkeeper Liz Schlossberg, who made 10 saves on the evening, with 22 shots. Maryland has only allowed a combined five shots to its last four opponents.

GAME 11 · SEPT. 24

WAKE FOREST ..... 3 (PS)
MARYLAND 2

COLLEGE PARK, Md. - The game pitting the top two teams in the country lived up to all its billing as No. 1 Wake Forest defeated No. 2 Maryland, 3-2, in penalty strokes in front of a Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex record-crowd 1,243 fans.

The previous record of 1,013 was set on Sept. 23, 2003, when the then-No. 1 Demon Deacons visited College Park to face the then-No. 3 Terrapins.

It was only the seventh time in the program's history a game had been decided by penalty strokes. Ariel Meyers' penalty-stroke goal, WFU's fifth attempt, was the deciding tally, as Wake won the stroke-off, 3-2.

The Terps, who suffered their first loss of the season and fell to 10-1 and 1-1 in the ACC, immediately attacked off the starting whistle. Less than two minutes in, freshman Sarah Scholl sprinted towards the net and knocked in a pass from junior All-American Paula Infante to give Maryland the early lead.

Wake Forest, who improved to 7-0 and 2-0 in the conference, put Maryland on its heels, attacking the Terps' defense with seven shots in the half. WFU was awarded a penalty corner and sophomore Kathryn Masson made the initial save on the shot, but could not get back for the rebound and Kristi Harshman knocked it in for the score.

With the teams tied at 1-1 in the second half, Maryland senior captain Emily Beach converted on one of three penalty corners in the period, giving the Terps the lead again, 2-1. However, a penalty stroke in the 65th minute evened things up again, 2-2, sending the game into overtime.

After a 2-2 stalemate despite two 15-minute overtime periods, the game was decided in penalty strokes and Meyers scored the clutch goal on WFU's final attempt to give the Deacons the win.

Masson, who saw 13 shots in regulation, had a career-high tying nine saves. The Terps outshot WFU, 15-13, including outshooting the Deacs, 9-0 in the extra periods, but could not convert. Maryland still leads the all-time series, 15-9, but has dropped the last seven-straight meetings.

VIRGINIA 1
MARYLAND 4

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – In her first game back since playing with the U.S. Junior National Team, senior Lauren Powley scored Maryland's first two goals in a 4-1 victory over ACC-foe Virginia.

Competing in a Terrapin uniform for the first time since September 10, Powley gave the Terps a 2-0 lead, scoring both goals off penalty corners at the 16th and 18th minutes. Powley had spent the last two weeks in Santiago, Chile, helping the U.S. Junior National Team to a best-ever seventh-place finish at the Junior World Cup.

The Cavs cut into the lead at 19:25 with a goal from Lindsay O'Bannon, but senior Jackie Ciconte's goal a minute-and-a-half later gave Maryland a two-goal cushion.

In the closing minute, the Terps were awarde two of their 11 penalty corners of the game. On scramble after the shot on the second corner, senic Tiffany Marsh found classmate Meredith Long in fror of the net and Long knocked in the ball with no tim remaining for Maryland's fourth goal of the game.

The Terrapin defense was solid onc again, allowing just four Cavalier shots Maryland, on the other hand, peppered UV goalie Katherine Blair with 17 shot attempts

RUTGERS 1
MARYLAND 7

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – No. 2 Maryland defeatec Rutgers in a 7-1 rout on as senior Emily Beach scored a career-high two goals in the victory, leading the Terps to their 12th win of the season.

Maryland (12-1) wasted no time jumping out to a 1-0 lead on senior Jackie Ciconte's 11th goal of the season, knocking in a rebounded shot just 1:21 into the contest.

The Terps went on to score four more times in the first half. Sophomore Janneke van Leeuwen took a long shot from the right side to tally her first goal of the season at 9:46. Senior Tiffany Marsh deflected a long pass from redshirt-freshman Kim Ziegler into the goal, making the score 3-0. It was Ziegler's first-career point.

Beach put the game out of reach with back-to-back, identical shots from the top of the circle, giving Maryland a comfortable 5-0 lead.

In the 53rd minute, Rutgers (6-6) took advantage on their only shot opportunity, as Kara Spector converted on the Scarlet Knights' only penalty corner of the game to break up the shutout.

At 54:18, junior Paula Infante picked up her eighth goal of the season on a penalty corner, her first since Sept. 11, then junior Emily Trycinski knocked in her second of the season with just over seven minutes remaining in the game.

For the eighth time this season, Maryland has limited its opponent to less than five shots in the game, as Rutgers was only able to get one shot attempt. The Scarlet Knights' Rosalyn Wentko had six saves for the game.

DUKE 0

DURHAM, N.C. – With the help of strong goalkeeping and team defense, No. 2 Maryland shut out No. 3 Duke, 2-0, in Durham, N.C.. Facing the fifth-best offense in the nation, sophomore Kathryn Masson had a career-high 14 saves, as fellow goalkeeper Christina Restivo stopped a penalty shot in the first half to protect Maryland's lead.

The beginning of the game began in a downpour as the action got underway on the field. The rain quickly went away, but the action never slowed. The Terps (13-1, 3-1) were outshot, 12-6, in the first half but took advantage of their opportunities.

Maryland's Meredith Long got things started with a shot. Duke's Christy Morgan made the save, but junior All-American Paula Infante collected the rebound and squared off for goal less than six minutes into the game.

The Blue Devils (9-3, 2-2) did not back down, but the Terrapin defense remained strong. With 18 minutes remaining in the first half, Masson made a diving stop and was pulled away from the cage. Duke fired off another attempt, but defender Kristina Edmonds was on the baseline to make the defensive save. Masson recovered in time to thwart a third-consecutive shot from the Blue Devils to protect the 1-0 lead. At the end of that sequence, however, Duke was awarded a penalty shot which Maryland's Restivo, who entered the game to defend the penalty shot, made the big save to keep the game at 1-0.

The Terps continued their opportunistic ways in the second half. Three and a half minutes into the period, Maryland moved the ball down the field and sophomore Janneke van Leeuwen made her way along the baseline and sailed a shot over the goalkeepers' head, the team's first of two shots of the half, giving the Terps a 2-0 cushion. With Masson's top-notch play in the goal and solid defense, Maryland hung on for the win.

Masson stopped a number of one-on-one opportunities and numerous other difficult attempts in traffic, en route to a career-high 14 saves. She remains undefeated against the Blue Devils, improving to 3-0 after posting a couple of wins last season.

PRINCETON 1
MARYLAND 5

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Powered by a couple of goals each from senior Jackie Ciconte and junior All-American Paula Infante, second-ranked Maryland exploded for five second-half goals to cruise to a 5-1 victory over Princeton. The Terps have won the last eight meetings between the teams, improving their all-time record against the Tigers to 10-4-1.

The Terps (14-1) trailed for most of the first half after Princeton's Paige Schmidt converted on a penalty corner off the pass from older sister Hillary Schmidt in the 12th minute. Maryland could not answer as the Tigers (5-7) limited the Terps to just five shots in the period.

After the break and still behind, 1-0, the Terps came to life. Less than two minutes into the new period, Infante rocketed a pass into the circle where Ciconte deflected it into the net to even the score, 1-1.

Infante then knocked in the eventual game winner at 48:02 on a penalty corner. Senior Tiffany Marsh, who is ranked second in the nation in assists, picked up her 13th of the season, while sophomore Janneke van Leeuwen was also credited with an assist.

Infante connected with Ciconte, once again, at 53:43 to give Maryland a 3-1 advantage. Freshman Sarah Scholl expanded the lead on the putback, then Infante scored her second of the game on a penalty cover to cap the evening at 5-1.

Infante had a season-high six points to end the game, adding two assists to go along with her two tallies.

After holding a slight edge on shots in the first half, 5-4, the Terps broke out for 12 attempts while limiting the Tigers to just one in the second stanza. Maryland boasts the second-ranked defense in the nation.

ACC Player of the Week Kathryn Masson, who leads the nation in goals against average and save percentage, notched three saves. Princeton goalie Allison Nemeth had six.

MARYLAND 1

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – No. 2 Maryland field hockey team suffered only its second loss of the season, falling to No. 8 Old Dominion, 4-1, to close out the home-and-home series with ODU. Senior Tiffany Marsh scored Maryland's lone goal.

Long-time rival ODU (11-4) was in command in the first half, attempting 11 shots and scoring four times in the period, while limiting the Terps (14-2) to just four shot attempts. The Lady Monarchs' Janelle Engle got things started quickly, converting a penalty corner just 1:05 into the game.

Maryland held off Old Dominion for the next 24 minutes, but a Shannon Mobley tally at 25:10 gave ODU a 2-0 lead. Three minutes later, Denise Admiraal cushioned the lead to 3-0. Admiraal scored again with less than a minute remaining in the first half to put the Lady Monarchs in front, 4-0.

Despite trailing 4-0 at the break, the Terps came out strong in the second half, attempting 14 shots in the second stanza, one more than Old Dominion had attempted all game. Defensively, Maryland also buckled down on the high-powered offense which was ranked second in the nation, limiting ODU to just two shots.

Marsh knocked in an unassisted goal to the far right corner, breaking up the shutout just five minutes into the second half, making the score 4-1.

Although the Terps turned on the offensive pressure, ODU was able to hold them at bay and did not let another Maryland goal get by.

Maryland also out-cornered Old Dominion, 7-5, with all five of ODU's corners coming in the first half. Monarch goalkeeper Mary Cate Gordon made nine saves while Maryland's Kathryn Masson notched five.

MARYLAND 5

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – The second-ranked Terrapins got back on track, cruising to a 5-0 win over Delaware in the home finale. Five different Terps scored goals in the win and six seniors were honored for Senior Day.

Maryland (15-2) dominated on both sides of the ball. On offense, the Terps attempted a season-high 34 shots and drew 17 penalty corners, also a high. In the backfield, the defense limited the Blue Hens (6-9) to just two shots and one corner.

Senior Meredith Long, who was playing in the final regular-season home game of her career, knocked in what would eventually be the game winner less than seven minutes into the game.

After an extended quiet period, Maryland got on the board again with a goal from senior Jackie Ciconte, who was also playing in her final regular-season home game, on a scramble in front of the net, to make the score 2-0 at the break.

Freshman Susie Rowe put the Terps ahead, 3-0, at 43:56, and senior Emily Beach, who was one of six Terps honored for Senior Day, as well, knocked in a penalty corner goal for the four-goal lead.

In the 63rd minute, freshman Sarah Scholl and redshirt freshman Kim Ziegler connected for the team's final tally of the game.

In the 52nd minute, Delaware had an opportunity to break into the scoring column, but junior defender Kristina Edmonds had a dive at the goal line to protect the shutout and turned away one of two Blue Hen shots in the period.

Delaware goalkeeper Megan Allen was peppered with 34 Maryland shots, but made 18 saves in 54 minutes. Terrapin keeper Kathryn Masson posted her fourth shutout of the season.

NORTH CAROLINA. 1

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. – Third-ranked Maryland battled the top-ranked defense and top-ranked goalkeeper in the nation but still got past No. 4 North Carolina, 2-1, in both teams' ACC finale. The Terps, who boasted the fifth-ranked defense in the country, clinch at least second-place in the ACC standings with two more conference games left to play in the season.

The Terps (16-2, 4-1 ACC) scored twice in the first half to take a 2-0 lead into the locker room, despite facing UNC's Katy Tran, who entered the game with the nation's top goals against average in the nation.

Sophomore Susie Rowe put Maryland on the board first at 4:06, knocking in a rebound after a Terrapin penalty shot was saved. Senior Jackie Ciconte's putback after another rebound gave Maryland a two-goal cushion late in the period.

But with less than 30 seconds remaining in the first half, North Carolina (12-4, 2-3 ACC) threatened to score on a 2-v-1 breakaway with only Maryland's Kathyrn Masson left as the final obstacle. The Tar Heels' shot attempt went wide, however, and Terps kept their shutout intact. Masson came into the game with the second-best goals against average in the country.

In the second half, the Terps controlled most of the action, attempting 10 shots and earning five penalty corners, while limiting North Carolina to just three shot attempts. UNC's Tran and the defense, however, were able to hold off the Terps in the period.

Late in the game, the Heels broke through on its only penalty corner of the period. Britt van Beek deflected a pass into the net, making the score 2-1. But UNC would not get any closer.

The Terps outshot the North Carolina, 20-7, for the game. The Terps also out-cornered UNC, 8-4. Masson ended the game with two saves, while Tran registered eight stops.

AMERICAN. 1

WASHINGTON, D.C. – No. 3 Maryland defeated its second-straight top five team in a row, handing local rival No. 5 American its first loss of the season, 2-1. Senior Jackie Ciconte scored the game-winning goal for the second-straight game.

Entering the contest on a 15-game win streak, the Eagles (15-1) took a 1-0 lead as Javiera Villagra slapped in a rebound in the 14th minute.

After battling back and forth, Maryland (17-2) drew a penalty corner and senior co-captain Emily Beach pounded the shot into the cage for the equalizer at 23:16. Senior Tiffany Marsh and sophomore Janneke van Leeuwen were both credited with assists.

The Terps scored the go-ahead tally seven minutes later. A misplayed ball by an American defender was picked up by senior Meredith Long who took a shot on goal. The ball rolled passed AU goalkeeper Allison Fayfich and in front of the open net. Ciconte then dove forward for the tip in and the score.

The second half was just as tightly contested as the first. AU created some opportunities for itself in the period to try to even up the game, but the Maryland defense, which is ranked in the top five in the nation, made several clears in front of the net and Terrapin goalkeeper Kathryn Masson also made a couple of saves to hold off the Eagles.

The win marks the final regular season game for Maryland and the 400th-career game for 18th-year head coach Missy Meharg. She is only the 32nd coach in NCAA history to have coached more than 400 games.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Maryland freshman Susie Rowe scored a pair of goals with less than seven minutes to play as the third-ranked and second-seeded Maryland rallied to top second-ranke and third-seeded Duke, 4-3, in the Atlantic Coa Conference Championship.

Rowe scored what would prove to be the gam winner with just 1:47 left in the contest, driving home shot from the top of the circle. Rowe had tied the gam just moments earlier, when she converted a shot c a Terrapin penalty corner in the 64th minute. Senic Emily Beach picked up an assist on the play, as sh faked a shot off the stick stop, but slid the ball over t Rowe, who scored it to even the score at 3-3.

The Blue Devils (14-4) had broken through for the first lead of the evening in the 57th minute, when Nicol Dudek powered home a shot off a penalty corner. AC Offensive Player of the Year Katie Grant pushed th ball in, and Marian Dickinson took the stop, settin up Dudek's strike.

Maryland (18-2) drew first blood in the contes with ACC Defensive Player of the Year Paula Infant converting a pass from freshman Sarah Scholl at th 8:46 mark. Infante and Scholl worked the give-and-g to perfection, with Infante starting the play from th middle of the field and sending the ball to Scholl o the right side. Scholl immediately found Infante in th middle of the circle, and Infante drilled a shot into th lower left corner of the goal to put the homestanding Terrapins on top early.

Duke countered in the 18th minute, when Gran scored an unassisted goal to even the score. Gran pushed the ball up the right side and through the Maryland defense, sending a laser into the lower lef corner of the goal.

Maryland regained the lead just minutes later, as senior Jackie Ciconte put away a rebound in the circle at the 23:19 mark. But the Blue Devils responded just 20 seconds later, as Grant notched her second goal o the contest with another shot from the right side that went in lower left.

Duke had an outstanding scoring chance thwarted with about 25 minutes to play, when Julie Tromp's shot off a penalty corner was saved and cleared. Maryland keeper Kathryn Masson made the initial stop, and Beach swatted away the loose ball in mid-air to preserve what was then a 2-2 tie.

Maryland held a 14-8 advantage in shots in the contest, while penalty corners were even at three apiece. Duke goalkeeper Christy Morgan made four saves, while Masson, who remains undefeated in four chances against the Blue Devils, saved three shots.

WAKE FOREST 2

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – In an Atlantic Coast Conference Championship title game clash between the top two seeds and two of the top three teams in the nation, neither side disappointed as Maryland scored with just 44.1 seconds left to take a 3-2 win over Wake Forest and claim the 2005 championship crown before a record crowd of 1,306.

Susie Rowe blasted home a rebound with just seconds remaining to give the Terrapins their sixth ACC title and first since 2001.

The championship contest was a thrilling back-and-forth affair with several exciting moments and near-misses. Maryland (19-2), ranked third in the nation and seeded second in the tournament, jumped out to an early lead, with sophomore Janneke van Leeuwen converting a Rowe pass at the 4:13 mark.

No. 1 seed and top-ranked Wake Forest (19-1) had a couple of promising scoring opportunities turned away after that. About 10 minutes into the contest, the Demon Deacons' Tracey Scott stole a Maryland pass in front of the net, and attempted to poke it past Terrapin keeper Kathryn Masson. Masson saved the shot and Haley Scott's shot off the rebound sailed wide.

The Deacons had another chance thwarted in the 25th minute, when Christine Suggs put a shot on frame when Masson was drawn out. Maryland's Kristina Edmonds stepped in front of the shot, however, earning the defensive save and keeping the Terps in the lead for the moment.

Masson made an outstanding save in the 26th minute, swiping away Tracey Scott's slow-rolling attempt just before it could cross the goal line.

The Deacons finally broke through against Maryland's defense in the 28th minute, with Suggs scoring off a penalty corner.

The Terrapins went back on top just minutes later, as senior Jackie Ciconte put away a rebound off a Paula Infante shot in the 34th minute, giving Maryland the 2-1 halftime lead.

Wake Forest drew even again in the 51st minute, when Crandall scored off a penalty corner. After Wake was awarded the corner for a takedown just outside the circle, Suggs pushed the ball in and Boreel handled the stick stop, setting up Crandall's scoring strike.

Maryland had a pair of close-range shots saved with about 10 minutes to play, , but Ciconte pounced on her own rebound and reeled off another shot. Gagliardi was again up to the challenge, this time saving the shot from her back to keep the game tied at 2-2.

The win was the 300th of Maryland coach Missy Meharg's career.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Top-seeded and top-ranked Maryland advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament after a 4-0 victory over No. 19 Richmond. Junior Emily Trycinski scored twice in the second half to seal the win for the Terps.

The win marked the fifth 20-win season in the history of the program for the ACC Champions and the third in the last five years.

Senior Tiffany Marsh put the Terps ahead early on, scoring a back-handed shot with just over one minute into the game. The Spiders (16-6), who earned an NCAA Tournament bid after winning the play-in game, were able to keep the Terps quiet until senior All-ACC performer Lauren Powley was in front of the cage to knock in a rebound at 27:03.

Maryland had only six shots in the first half, but pounced for 12 in the second period, dominating the tempo of the game. In the 53rd minute, sophomore Janneke van Leeuwen connected with Trycinski on the break, making a solid pass across the net. Trycinski finished off with the goal to make the score, 3-0. Trycinski capped the scoring with her second of the game, a career high, in the 62nd minute.

The Terrapins kept Richmond to just three shots on the game and one penalty corner. Maryland, on the other hand, had 18 shots and five corners. Spiders' goalie Michelle Swartz had 11 saves.

MARYLAND 3

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – For the third-straight year, Maryland advanced to the NCAA semifinals after a 3-0 win over No. 6 American in the second round of the tournament. The Terps scored three late goals to clinch the win as senior Lauren Powley knocked in the game winner.

"I'm so pleased for this team. We've talked about making it back to the final four for the past nine months and now we have a great opportunity to win a national championship," said Maryland head coach Missy Meharg. "American is a very good team and they were a tough opponent."

The Terps will make their 11th national semifinal appearance (including the 1979 AIAW) and sixth in the last seven years.

For the second-consecutive year, Maryland (21-2) had to get past American (20-2) to get to the semifinals. The game was scoreless after the first 35 minutes of play and the both teams did not let the other get easy opportunities, although the Terps had possession of the ball for most of the game. In the 60th minute, a penalty corner for Maryland set up three-time All-American Powley for the shot, which she knocked in for the first score of the game.

After Powley's goal, the Terrapins seemed unstoppable. All-ACC performer Jackie Ciconte made a long pass into the circle for senior Meredith Long and Long deflected it into the net, giving the Terps a two-goal cushion at 62:52. Five minutes later, Ciconte passed off to Long on the 2-v-1 break and Long tapped the ball in, despite an oncoming Allison Fayfich, AU's goalkeeper, to give the Terps a comfortable and insurmountable 3-0 lead with less that three minutes to go in the game.

Maryland outshot American 16-6 in the game, but was even better defensively, giving up just one second-half shot and penalty corner to the Eagles. Fayfich ended the game with seven saves, while Terp goalie Kathryn Masson had two.

The 21 victories on the season are the most for Maryland since 1999.

NCAA SEMIFINAL

MARYLAND 3

LOUISVILLE, Ky. – Top-seeded Maryland never trailed in its NCAA Tournament semifinal game, claiming a 3-2 victory over perennial power and fourth-ranked Old Dominion, 3-2, at Trager Stadium.

The Terps (22-2) attacked early and often, attempting 17 shots in the game, eight in the first half. But the defense was even better, limiting the Lady Monarchs (19-6) to just six shots for overall, including just one in the first period.

Maryland's first goal was the result of solid defense. Freshman defender Susie Rowe intercepted an ODU pass in the circle and worked her way out of the defensive quarter of the field, passing off to junior Paula Infante, who was on the break. Infante carried the ball down to ODU's offensive circle and fired off a shot which went between the goalkeepers' legs for the first goal with 30:51 left in the half.

The score would stand at 1-0 until the second period when Old Dominion came out and almost immediately tied the score. After a penalty corner, Darcy Pinchbeck pushed in a shot passed the goal line on the scramble to even things up, 1-1, at 36:25.

The Terps responded, however, on a perfectly executed penalty corner. Infante faked the shot and passed off to sophomore Janneke van Leeuwen on the baseline, and she knocked it into the open net, giving Maryland the 2-1 lead.

Looking for the insurance goal, van Leeuwen had her second shot of the game saved, but the rebound went towards the middle of the circle and senior Jackie Ciconte grabbed it and scored, putting the Terps ahead, 3-1.

ODU was persistent and would not go away. Janelle Engle brought the Monarchs to within 3-2 when she scored off her own rebounded shot with almost six minutes remaining in the game. But the Terps hung on to the ball, keeping it away from Old Dominion in the final minutes, to claim the win.

It was the third meeting between the teams this season, with each team winning on the other's field.

Maryland outshot ODU, 17-6, and had eight penalty corners while the Lady Monarchs had six. ODU goalkeeper Mary Cate Gordon registered seven saves.

DUKE..... 0
MARYLAND..... 1

LOUISVILLE, Ky. - Jackie Ciconte's goal in the first half was all No. 1 Maryland needed to capture the 2005 NCAA Championship crown, the program's fourth overall and first in six years. The Terps defeated third-seeded Duke, 1-0, in Trager Stadium to clinch the crown.

"I'm thrilled for this team. These women have sacrificed and worked so hard all season long to achieve their goals," said 18th-year Maryland head coach Missy Meharg, who picked up the third national championship of her career. "This senior class showed so much leadership and heart, and I'm proud of these women for what they have accomplished."

Early in the game, senior Jackie Ciconte dribbled down the field and got behind the Duke defense for a 1-v-1 with the goalkeeper. Making her way into the circle, Blue Devils' goalie Christy Morgan went down for the block, but Ciconte went around her for the shot into the open net and the only score of the game less the nine minutes from the opening whistle.

The Terrapin defense had another outstanding performance. Maryland had possession for the majority of the first half, but when the Blue Devils did make their way into the Terps' circle, the defense took the ball away. Duke's only two shots of the half went wide.

One of those shots came with 15:15 remaining in the first half. Duke was awarded a penalty corner. Julie Tromp passed the ball to ACC Offensive Player of the Year Katie Grant, who was standing all alone on the baseline. However, her shot went wide and out of bounds.

In the second half, Duke had the advantage on time of possession, but could only get three shots. One of those shots was off the penalty corner, but the shot never made it close to the cage as senior Laure Powley got her stick in the way for the block.

Duke, who boasted the fourth-ranked offense the nation, was held to just five shots for the gam and was shutout for only the second time all seasor Their only other shutout came at the hands of the Terp back on Oct. 8 in Durham, N.C. It is the third time thi season Maryland had defeated the Blue Devils, als beating them in the semifinals of the ACC Tournamer in College Park.

The Terrapin defense posted its third shutout of th tournament and the ninth of the season. The 23 win this year is one victory shy of tying the school recor and the most since 1999, the last time the Terps wo the NCAA title.

Ciconte's goal was her 20th of the season, a caree high and tying for the fifth-most by a Terrapin.

Sophomore goalie Kathryn Masson remain: undefeated in her career vs. Duke, winning all fiv meetings since last season.

Missy Meharg has guided Maryland NCAA title: in 1993, 1999 and, now, 2005. The Terps won thei first title in 1987.

"STRIVE FOR CLARITY, BUT ACCEPT AND UNDERSTAND AMBIGUITY."

That phrase captures one way in which an educated person approaches the world and its challenges. Students who graduate from the University of Maryland have been exposed to the tools that allow them to put that perspective to work. Imparting such a perspective may be an ambitious project for undergraduate education, but to aim for anything less would be unworthy of a great university's goals for its students. Thirteen years ago, Promises to Keep, a plan for undergraduate education at Maryland, articulated those goals so eloquently we repeat them here.

Undergraduate education at Maryland "aims to provide students with a sense of identity and purpose, a concern for others, a sense of responsibility for the quality of life around them, a continuing eagerness for knowledge and understanding, and a foundation for a lifetime of personal enrichment."

As we learn with and from one another, we try to "develop human values," "celebrate tolerance and fairness," "contribute to the social conscience," "monitor and assess private and collective assumptions," and "recognize the glory, tragedy and humor of the human condition." Your years at the University of Maryland can provide you with all the tools you need to accomplish these goals. Students here are "educated to be able to read with perception and pleasure, write and speak with clarity and verve, handle numbers and computation proficiently, reason mathematically, generate clear questions and find probable arguments, reach substantiated conclusions and accept ambiguity."

AND WE ALSO HOPE YOU ENJOY THE JOURNEY.

2006 MARYLAND FIELD HOCKEY

THE UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

THE CAMPUS

By virtually every measure of quality, the University of Maryland has gained national recognition as one of the fastest-rising comprehensive research institutions in the country. The momentum of recent years has poised the university to move it into the top ranks of higher education and take leadership in shaping the research university of the 21st century.

The university has enjoyed a decade of momentum in all of the areas that affect quality. The average high school GPA of entering students has zoomed from 3.01 to nearly 3.90, and the average SATs are now more than 1270. The student body is a model of diversity, with minorities making up more than 33 percent of all students, and at least one graduate and undergraduate student from every state in the nation.

The university has 79 graduate and undergraduate programs ranked in the Top 25 by U.S. News and World Report, up from just one program in 1991.

Sponsored research and outreach has nearly tripled in the same 10-year period, exceeding $350 million last year. Private giving also has increased, and the university last year concluded its first campaign by topping its $350 million goal by more than $100 million. Alumni Association membership has been growing at an average rate of 10 percent a year since 1992.

One of the largest research universities in the United States, Fall 2005 enrollment was 25,442 undergraduate and 9,927 graduate students. There are 94 undergraduate programs, 89 master's programs, 70 doctoral programs and one first professional degree program. More than 100 centers and institutes are engaged in research and outreach.

Faculty at the University of Maryland, in all fields of knowledge, are engaged at the highest levels of national and international concern. The university's location near the center of federal policy-making and international political and economic activity enables it to play an active role in research and analysis of public policy.

Maryland is one of 30 public universities in the prestigious 63-member Association of American Universities and the only public institution in the Maryland-D.C. area with membership in the nation's most distinguished honor society, Phi Beta Kappa.

DID YOU KNOW?

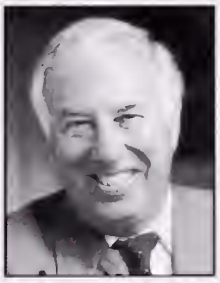
In 1991, Maryland had one program listed among Top 25 entrants in the U.S. News & World Report Rankings. Maryland now has 79 programs ranked among the nation's elite, and the university is ranked 18th nationally among public universities.

A report card published in Technology Review rated the top U.S. universities in their quest for intellectual property, commercial partners and profits. Johns Hopkins University and the University of Maryland (28th) were the Mid-Atlantic (Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, District of Columbia) schools to make the "campus patenting" top 50 list.

Black Issues In Higher Education ranked the university fourth nationally in bachelor's degrees earned by African-American students at traditionally white schools. Maryland ranks first in African-American undergraduate degrees in social sciences and history.

The Wall Street Journal ranked the Robert H. Smith School of Business No. 15 a mong the world's business schools. Maryland is the top-ranked school in the Mid-Atlantic region (Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia). The Financial Times of London ranked the Robert H. Smith School of Business No. 3 in value for money, No. 6 overall among U.S. public business schools and No. 12 in placement rate.

In the undergraduate program rankings released by U.S. News & World Report both the A. James Clark School of Engineering (No. 22) and the Robert H. Smith School of Business (No. 22) were ranked among the top 25.



DR. C.D. MOTE

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT
CALIFORNIA '59
EIGHTH YEAR

As the 19th president of the University of Maryland, C. D. "Dan" Mote Jr. has presided since 1998 over a university that is claiming a well-earned position in the top echelon of research universities in the nation. An internationally-respected researcher and member of the National Academy of Engineering, Dr. Mote is Glenn L. Martin Institute Professor of Engineering. He serves on the Technology Council of Maryland, is co-chair of the Potomac Conference of the Greater Washington Board of Trade and heads its Technology Transfer Committee.

Under President Mote's leadership, Maryland has received national and international notice for innovative undergraduate education opportunities, high-impact research and academic programs, outstanding performing arts, and athletes and athletic teams competitive with the best in the nation.

"The future of the state depends on this university," says Mote. "It is the State of Maryland's most important asset." As president, Dan Mote has been determined to make that asset even greater by nourishing a culture of excellence and civility across the campus, strengthening the university's connections with its various stakeholders, building partnerships with State and national corporations and federal agencies and achieving distinction as an institution where discovery takes place every day and everywhere. The university's progress can be seen in all areas, from its nationally-ranked programs to its success in building external partnerships to its state-of-the-art facilities.

QUALITY PROGRAMS

Over the past decade, the quality of Maryland's programs and reputation has climbed steadily. In 2003, the University of Maryland moved up to 17th place among public universities in U.S. News & World Report rankings, up from 30th in 1998. We currently have 44 graduate and undergraduate programs and units ranked in the top 15 by U.S. News & World Report, up from 5 in 1995.

While our academic successes have spread across the board, the university has emerged as a true powerhouse in business, computer science, earth sciences, engineering, environmental policy, education and journalism. Maryland is one of only 10 public and private universities that have their programs in computer science, mathematics, physics, and engineering each ranked in the top 20. Our College of Education is ranked in the top 20 nationally and 5 of its programs are in the top 10.

ATHLETIC EXCELLENCE

Mote sees athletics as an integral part of the university experience. Indeed athletic success more often than not reflects academic success, he notes. For example, all four of the teams that played in the 2002 NCAA basketball Final Four, including Maryland, are members of the prestigious Association of American Universities, the organization that comprises the leading research and academic universities in North America. "That's no accident," Mote says. "Institutions that are committed to excellence tend to be excellent in every endeavor. Our successes in football, basketball, lacrosse and other sports reflects our culture of quality as much as our successes in engineering, business, education and journalism."

FACULTY STATURE

Dr. Mote believes a university's quality is built by its faculty, and under his leadership, Maryland continues to attract the best faculty available. The university recruited a Nobel Laureate in Physics in 2001 and three more Pulitzer Prize winners (to join three already on the faculty). More than 30 of our faculty are members of the national academies, the highest professional recognition attainable.

2005 NCAA & ACC CHAMPS

DEBORAH A. YOW

ATHLETICS DIRECTOR • 13TH YEAR AT MARYLAND

Deborah A. Yow is in the 13th year of her outstanding tenure as director of athletics at the University of Maryland, a tenure that has seen unprecedented success and achievement in Maryland athletics. Each year has brought steady and continued improvement and accomplishment in Terrapin athletics. In Yow's 12 years at Maryland, the Terrapins have won a remarkable 13 national championships and graduated student-athletes at an enviable rate as Maryland athletics has soared to sustained new heights among the nation's elite intercollegiate athletic programs.

The comprehensive success of Terrapin athletics under Debbie Yow's leadership is a clear and compelling testimony of her values of excellence, teamwork and accountability.

Likewise, her prior election to the presidency of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics is an indication of the wide respect with which she is regarded among its 6,100 members representing 1,600 colleges and universities in the U.S. and Canada.

She was honored recently by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal as one of the 20 most influential people in intercollegiate athletics and she has received the Carl Maddox Sport Management Award presented by the United States Sports Academy for excellence in athletics administration.

Dr. Yow was selected to serve on the U.S. Department of Education's Commission on Opportunities in Athletics to review the status of Federal Title IX regulations. She recently served as the chair of the Atlantic Coast Conference Committee on Television. The committee is charged with overseeing the league's TV contracts and dealing with issues related to television. Yow led the committee during the successful renegotiation of comprehensive, multi-year ACC football and basketball contracts with ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and syndication entities.

Additionally, she has represented intercollegiate athletics with presentations in a number of prominent settings such as the Harvard University School of Law conference on "Shaping the Future of Collegiate Athletics" and the Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal "National Forum on the Direction of Intercollegiate Athletics" in New York. She was also recently inducted into the State of Maryland Women's Hall of Fame and the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame, joining fellow Terp Buck Williams as honorees.

Yow, who has served on the NCAA Manageme Council and the NCAA Division I Budget Committee a strong and steady voice on behalf of intercollegia athletics in America.

Since taking over as AD at Maryland in 1994, sl and her staff have:

- Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsiv goal-oriented organization with 27 sports and mo than 700 student-athletes.
- Balanced all 12 of the department's annual budge (none of the budgets were balanced in the years prior to her arrival). The budget has nc reached $52 million annually and the multi-millic dollar accumulated operating debt which h administration inherited has been eradicated.
- Greatly enhanced the academic suppo services provided for student-athletes, with a enviable exhausted eligibility graduation rate approximately 85 percent for student athletes Maryland.
- Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports rankin in the upper 7 percent of all NCAA Division institutions.
- Significantly expanded marketing and fund-raisin efforts on behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a resul private gifts to athletics have increased over 35 percent and corporate sponsorship revenues hav increased by over 300 percent during her tenure Maryland.
- Continued to dramatically improve venues an facilities for the department's 27 teams. Th Comcast Center for men's and women's basketba and other sports that use the facility is a prim

Implemented a strategic management model.

Developed a comprehensive Internet strategy with management, marketing and fund-raising applications.

Significantly improved customer care in every area of Maryland athletics.

The most recent achievements of Maryland athletics are exceptional:

Maryland captured a remarkable four national championships during the 2005-06 academic season.

In 2005-2006, the Terrapins achieved the highest student-athlete graduation rate in the history of Maryland athletics.

Maryland was selected by U.S. News & World Report as one of the Top 20 athletic programs in the nation (for overall quality and competitive excellence).

In 2005-06, Maryland Athletics won the inaugural PRISM Award as the most well-managed Division I collegiate athletics program in the nation.

In men's basketball, the Terps won the Atlantic Coast Conference title over Duke in the championship game in 2004 and won the NCAA National Championship in 2002. Under Coach Gary Williams, the men's basketball team appeared in 11 consecutive NCAA Tournaments.

Maryland was ranked as the sixth-finest athletic program in the nation by the Laboratory for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics, based on comprehensive criteria such as graduation rates, financial efficiency, equity effectiveness and competitive excellence.

Women's basketball won the 2006 NCAA National Championship under head coach Brenda Frese, completing an amazing turnaround that saw the program go from a 10-18 record to a National Championship in four seasons.

In football, the Terps won the 2001 Atlantic Coast Conference championship and played in the 2002 Orange Bowl, followed that with an 11-win season and a 30-3 victory over the University of Tennessee in the Peach Bowl, again followed by a 10-win season and a 41-7 win over West Virginia in the Gator Bowl on New Year's Day 2004. Graduation rates in football are near 80 percent and the program was recently recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for its academic excellence under Coach Ralph Friedgen.

- Additionally, Maryland is one of only two universities in the nation to win National Championships in men's basketball, women's basketball and football. Stanford is the only other NCAA Division I institution to achieve that mark.
- Set an ACC single-game record for women's basketball attendance by drawing 17,243 to a regular-season game at Comcast Center.

Dr. Yow with Boomer Esiason (left), Bonnie Bernstein (center) and Steve Francis (right).

- Hired Dave Cottle, the third-winningest active men's lacrosse coach in the U.S., who guided his team to the NCAA Final Four three times in the past four seasons.
- Field Hockey earned a National Championship in 2005-06 and has become a perennial participant in the Final Four in that sport.
- Women's Lacrosse has continued its winning ways with seven national championships from 1995-2001, with additional Final Four appearances.
- Men's Soccer has appeared in four consecutive Final Fours and won the NCAA National Championship in the 2005-06 season.
- Football facilities have been significantly enhanced with team house, stadium and practice field upgrades. The Academic Center was the first improvement, as it took priority over all other initiatives.
- The Terrapins have moved into the new $125 million Comcast Center, housing athletic department offices and seating for 18,000 fans for basketball and other events.
- In 2005-06, 13 Maryland teams competed in postseason play.
- The productivity, morale, and the competitive and academic achievement of Terrapin athletics are exceptional and continue to gain momentum.

Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past 12 years, Yow says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied... our vision is to be one of the Top 5 programs in the nation consistently... we see no reason to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools... to work hard and work smart... to recognize that our only limitations are those that we place upon ourselves."

As a manager and a leader, she clearly models these principles. She is the only known current AD in NCAA Division I who has hired both the National Coach of the Year in football (while at Maryland) and the National Coach of the Year in men's basketball (while at Saint Louis University). In 2002, she brought to the University of Maryland Brenda Frese, who at that time was the National Coach of the Year in women's basketball. Four years later, Frese led the Terrapins to the NCAA National Championship at the Women's Final Four in Boston.

Dr. Yow is known as "a coach's AD," while also being highly organized and a strategic and proactive leader and administrator. Quite simply, Debbie Yow personifies the relational and management dynamics that are necessary to be an excellent administrator.

A successful former basketball coach at the University of Kentucky and University of Florida, she moved into athletics administration at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, followed by a successful tenure as AD at Saint Louis University from 1990 through 1994.

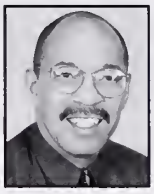
She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics management and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States.

Summing up the entire Maryland athletics program, our athletics director recently stated, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets, our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the M Club members who serve and give liberally. We are also blessed with a terrific President, Dr. Dan Mote, who has fostered a mindset of excellence across our institution. He is a strong and balanced advocate for what he calls 'the three A's of the University -- Academics, the Arts and Athletics'. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all of our success... and the basis for our bright future. It's a great time to be a Terp."

ACADEMIC SUPPORT AND CAREER DEVELOPMENT

The University of Maryland is committed to providing the highest quality education to all of its students. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to provide student-athletes excellent opportunities to participate in an intercollegiate athletics program of the highest quality, with the result that their athletics participation becomes an integral and valued component of their total educational experience at the university.

Terrapin student-athletes will find that the same hard work and discipline that has earned them success in athletics competition is also required in the classroom. Balancing the significant time demands and responsibilities required to be a successful student-athlete at the highest collegiate level is no small task. Therefore, as a result of their commitment to representing the university through athletics, Terrapin student-athletes are able to utilize support programs designed to meet their specific needs.



Led by associate athletics director Anton Goff, the mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU) is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that will enhance academic progress, facilitate career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of all UM student-athletes. Don Pearman (right) works with the field hockey team.

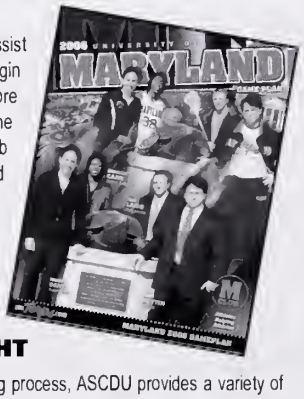
The Gossett Academic Support and Career Development Center for Terrapin student-athletes, named for long-time Terp supporters Barry and Mary Gossett, is located in the Comcast Center. It features a study center that includes 25 desktop computers, a tutoring center, a classroom, a CHAMPS/Life Skills resource room and individual offices for six professional academic counselors, a director of ILP programs, an assistant program coordinator and two graduate assistants. In addition, a new academic wing was added to the Gossett football team house last Fall. It features offices for two counselors, three learning specialist, and a graduate assistant; as well as a quiet study area, 29-desk computer lab, classroom, tutor rooms and classroom/lab for the individualized learning program.

Academic courses, programs and services offered by ASCDU include the following:

- Student-athlete orientation
- Academic counseling
- NCAA academic eligibility monitoring
- Academic enrichment and career development presentations and workshops
- Accredited tutorial support
- Individualized learning program
- EDCP 108-K (College learning strategies and skills)
- EDCP 108-M (Math learning strategies and skills)
- UNIV 100 (First-year transitions to the university)

MARYLAND GAMEPLAN

The Maryland Gameplan is intended to assist graduating Terrapin student-athletes as they begin the job search process. It is distributed to more than 500 corporations and businesses across the country, in addition to being featured on the M Club website. Prospective employers are introduced to our graduating student-athletes with resume information relative to academic, career and personal achievements. The Maryland Gameplan directory is produced annually in collaboration with the M Club.



CAREER NETWORKING NIGHT

Because career development is an ongoing process, ASCDU provides a variety of programs for student-athletes throughout the year. Professional assistance with resume-writing, interviewing skills, graduate school search and job search is readily available to all student-athletes. During the spring semester ASCDU hosts the Career Networking Night, where student-athletes can learn about career interests and career planning. Unlike typical "job fairs," the purpose of this program is to allow student-athletes to explore multiple career opportunities by speaking directly to individuals in their chosen areas of interest. Employers at the Career Networking Night recognize the marketable qualities student-athletes have gained through athletic participation. Student-athletes learn about opportunities for internships and full-time jobs.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ADVISORY COUNCIL

The Student-Athlete Advisory Council (S.A.A.C.) plays an important role in th Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. It consists of two representatives from each vars sport and meets on a regular basis with representatives from the athletic administration. Th S.A.A.C. mission is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by developing leadersh skills, promoting student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student-athlete image on th Maryland campus, local area and nationally.

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS

ASCDU houses the NCAA's (National Collegiate Athletic Association) Challenging Athletes' Minds for Personal Success (C.H.A.M.P.S.) Life Skills Program. The ASCDU staff, in collaboration with various other Department of Intercollegiate Athletics' units and campus resources, strives to provide a systematic personal development program designed to reach each student-athlete based on his or her individual needs. The focus of the program is on the individual academically, athletically and emotionally, and on the changing needs and skills of that individual in the years during college and after graduation. The menu of presentations, workshops and seminars is a comprehensive and balanced system of "life learning" programs promoted fo use by each varsity sport team.

NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills PROGRAM

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS:

- Support efforts of every student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation
- Use athletics as preparation for success in life
- Meet the changing needs of student-athletes
- Promote respect for diversity among student-athletes
- Enhance interpersonal relationships in the lives of student-athletes
- Assist student-athletes in building positive self-esteem
- Enable student-athletes to make meaningful contributions to their communities
- Promote ownership by the student-athletes of their academic, athletic, personal and socia responsibilities
- Enhance partnerships between the NCAA, member institutions and their communities fo the purpose of education
- Encourage the development of leadership skills

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS COMMITMENT STATEMENTS

Commitment to Academic Excellence To support the academic progress of the student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation.

Commitment to Athletic Excellence To build philosophical foundations for the development of athletic programs that are broad-based, equitable and dedicated to the well-being of the student-athlete.

Commitment to Personal Development To support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle for student-athletes, encouraging emotional well-being, personal growth and decision-making skills.

Commitment to Career Development To encourage the student-athlete to develop and pursue career and life goals.

Commitment to Service To engage student-athletes in service to his/her campus and surrounding communities.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT FOR RETURNING ATHLETES PROGRAM

The Academic Support for Returning Athletes Program was created in 1986 to support the academic efforts of former varsity student-athletes at the University of Maryland, College Park. In 1989, ASRAP was assigned by the President's Office to the Academic Achievements Program and enrolled 40 students that year. As a member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports (NCAS), the University of Maryland is committed to assisting its former athletes with degree completion. A key component of the program is community outreach. Each returning student completes a "workship" that allows the cost of tuition and fees to be exchanged for community services with youth. In 2002, ASRAP moved into the ASCDU.

MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA GUIDELINES

Credentials: Media and photographer credentials for events at Maryland's Field Hockey & Lacrosse Complex may be obtained by working press, radio and television by writing or calling Natalia Ciccone in the Maryland Athletic Media Relations Office, 2725 Comcast Center, College Park, MD 20741-0295. All requests should be submitted at least 48 hours prior to the event by phoning the Media Relations Office at (301) 314-7063. Since space is limited, accommodations are on a priority basis: daily newspapers and wire services, originating radio and television stations, national weekly or monthly publications, electronic media outlets, local and regional television crews. Priority is granted to members of the media who cover Maryland Athletics on a regular basis, and to visiting media members. Photo passes will be issued only to accredited photographers on assignment.

Services: The Media Relations Office will provide complete statistics at the conclusion of every home game. Programs containing rosters and event notes on each team will be provided for the working media.

Fax Machine: The Media Relations Office has one facsimile machine, located in Room 2725 of Comcast Center, which is available upon request. The fax number is (301) 314-9094.

Terps on the Web: For up-to-date game stories, statistics, schedules and results, and other Maryland athletic department information, please locate www.umterps.com on the Internet.

TROY TUCKER

ASSOCIATE AD/ADMIN./FIELD HOCKEY SUPERVISOR

Troy Tucker was hired as Associate Athletics Director in July 2004. Tucker is involved many of the day to day operations of the department in addition to overseeing the men's lacrosse, women's soccer, field hockey, men's golf, women's golf and swimming & diving programs and supervising the Facilities & Operations and Media Relations Units. Tucker also serves as the vice-chair of the ACC swimming & diving committee.

Prior to his arrival at Maryland, Tucker served as the Director of Athletics at 3 institutions; Jamestown-Olean Community College (1992-96), D'Youville College (1996-99) and Herkimer County Community Colllege (1999-2004). During his tenure at Herkimer, Tucker operated the 21-sport, nationally competitive program with a balanced budget. He also oversaw the renovations of nine different facilities. Under Tucker's direction, Herkimer earned three-consecutive top-10 finishes in the Region III Director's Cup and finished 2003-04 ranked fifth among junior college athletic programs in the nation by NATYCAA Pepsi Cup. Three teams won five NJCAA National Championships and four won 13 regional titles. His teams also earned eight NJCAA Academic Team of the Year awards with the women's swimming & diving squad garnering the honor three times. Tucker also served as the Head Men's Basketball Coach from 1999-2003, earning Coach of the Year Honors in 2001-02.

Prior to his tenure at Herkimer, Tucker was the Director of Athletics and Head Men's Basketball Coach at NCAA Division III D'Youville College in Buffalo, N.Y. While there, he headed the expansion of the athletics program from three to 11 teams, and was named National Athletic Director of the Year in 1998.

A native of Scio, N.Y., Tucker began his collegiate career as an administrator at Jamestown-Olean Community College. During his time there, he helped initiate the college's athletic program and was also the Jaguars' Head Men's Basketball Coach for a year.

Tucker is a 1991 graduate of SUNY Geneseo where he earned a bachelor of science in business. In 1992, he earned his master's from Springfield in athletics administration. Tucker and his wife, Rhonda, have two sons, Griffin and Mason and a daughter, Haley.
